

HISTORY WORKSHOPS AT WIRRAL ARCHIVES SERVICE

Wirral Archives Service presents a series of workshops to be held on the first Thursday of the month, from 2 to 4 p.m. These free workshops cover a variety of family and local history topics, illustrated by documents drawn from our holdings. Everyone interested in family and local history is welcome!

5 January	An Introduction to Family History
2 February	Family History – Taking it Further
1 March	Cammell Laird Shipbuilders
5 April	Wirral and the Titanic
3 May	Prehistoric Wirral
7 June	Roman Wirral
5 July	Anglo-Saxon Wirral (5th–8th centuries)
2 August	Viking Wirral (9th–11th centuries)
6 September	Medieval Wirral
4 October	Tudor and Stuart Wirral
1 November	Changing Wirral
6 December	Modern Wirral

For further information, or to book a place on any of these workshops, please contact the Archivist, William Meredith, on 0151 606 2922, or e-mail on williammeredith@wirral.gov.uk.

Please also see our webpage at the following address:
www.wirral.gov.uk/my-services/leisure-and-culture/wirral-archives-service

