

- Information to help with tracing your family history
- Antiquarian collections covering Cheshire, Lancashire, Staffordshire Yorkshire, and other counties

Newspapers

A collection of nineteenth and twentieth century Macclesfield newspapers.

One name section

We have a collection of books, notes and pedigrees and on single surnames.

Documents

We have collections of wills and deeds covering Cheshire and other areas. An index is available.

Chadwick Documents.

Trunkfield Collection.

Opening Times

Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday 10:00–16:00

There is a daily charge

Tea and coffee are available

Please note we are located on the first floor and there is no lift

Special openings can be arranged for groups

Discover your family history

www.fhsc.org.uk

Help is available at our Research Centre

The Rajar Building
Town Lane,
Mobberley,
WA16 7ER
01565 872210

FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY OF CHESHIRE

The Family History Society of Cheshire Mobberley Research Centre offers help and advice to those researching their family history whether in Cheshire or elsewhere.

Our volunteers are on hand to help with those who wish to start researching their ancestors and those who need advice on further research.

All resources at the Centre are for reference only. The library list of the Mobberley Centre can be viewed on the FHSC website:
<https://www.fhsc.org.uk/new-mobberley-research/mobberley-holdings>

Computer Resources

FHSC subscribes to the following genealogical websites

- Ancestry
- Find My Past
- The Genealogist

Visitors can use these sites without charge. We can offer advice on other useful free websites.

Microfilm

We hold a collection of Cheshire Parish Registers, many covering dates not available on Find My Past. We also have a small number of Parish Records such as Churchwardens Accounts

Microfiche

A collection including Memorial Inscriptions, National Probate Indexes, Apprentices and Masters Index and Parish Register Transcripts.

Library

We have over 8.000 books and documents providing valuable sources for family historians.

Our collection of books cover topics such as:

- Cheshire town and villages
- Selection of titles covering the rest of the UK
- Local, national and social history
- Various religions